Preface.

The first Visitation of Northamptonshire, including Huntingdonshire, was made in 1564 by William Harvey, Clarenceulx (H. 14); the next Visitation of Northamptonshire, including Rutlandshire, was made in 1618–19 by Augustine Vincent, Rouge Rose, Deputy to William Camden, Clarenceulx (C. 14).

Copies of the Northamptonshire portion of these Visitations, more or less complete and accurate, are to be found in the various Harl. MSS. referred to in Mr. Sims's 'Genealogist's Manual;' and most of them contain numerous additions, the authority for which may be questionable.

This book contains so much of those two Visitations as relates to Northamptonshire.

The Appendix contains Northamptonshire Pedigrees, some of which have been taken from R. Mundy's Harl. MS. 1553, being, as he calls them, "descents coppied of Mr. Vincent's own booke," and others from the other MSS. above referred to.

The third and last Visitation of Northamptonshire, including Rutlandshire, is that of 1681–2, being K. 1 at the College of Arms, no copy of which is known to exist elsewhere.

Table of Contents.

I Stephen Peck of Knoston in com. Lester, Gent., do testifie that this bearer Francis Haselden al's Carter is lawfully descended from Randolph Haselden sometime of Knoston in the said county of Lester who was a Yorkshire man borne neare to the parts of Wakefeld, and that the said Francis was the second sonn of John Carter the eldest sonn of John Haselden al's Carter the eldest son of Will'm Haselden al's Carter the eldest sonn of the sayd Randolph Haselden, w'ch Randolph is confidently reported by an auntiant gent, one Kenelme Carter, who is one of the eldest of this bearer's kindred now liveing in the Lord Peter's house, to have ben the servant and Bayliff of husbandry to the Abbott of Owston, whereby the sayd Randolph's posteritie ever since retained the surname of Carter, but I am assured and do testifie that his right name is Haselden as by antiant Recordes remaining in my hands of the said Randolph Haselden may apeare; also I am verily assured that my ancestors and his, being kinsmen, did com together out of Yorkshire into Lestershire about the time of Richard the third, where many of them continue at this day.

In witness whereof I have herto sett my name. STEPH. PECK.
